

Family Fun for All Ages

Come to the gateway of the beautiful Litchfield Hills in Terryville, Connecticut and experience a fun weekend of family camping and entertainment for the Columbus Day weekend at a minimal expense. The Terryville Lions Club has 50 acres of spacious hilltop fields which will be ablaze in color. The weekend will include entertainment and activities that appeal to all ages.

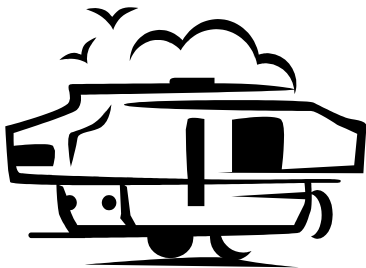

All proceeds from the event will be used to support a variety of Lions Charities including Fidelco Guide Dogs, services for sight or hearing impaired individuals and scholarships.

Camping amenities include: water and electric hook-up, hot showers and large public restroom, food canteen, and dump station. Water and electricity are available on a first come, first serve basis.

Pets are welcomed provided they are up to date on vaccinations and are leashed at all times.
